

2016 ANNUAL EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

Friends of WWOZ, Inc.

Station(s): WWOZ-FM
Community(ies) of License: New Orleans, LA

Reporting Period: February 1, 2016 through January 31, 2017

No. of Full-time Employees: 5 – 10 _____ / More than 10 X
Small Market Exemption: No

During the Reporting Period, a total of four (4) full-time positions were filled. The information required by FCC Rule 73.2080(c)(6) is provided in the charts that follow.

INITIATIVES

The employment unit engaged in the following broad outreach initiatives in accordance with various elements of FCC Rule 73.2080(c)(2):

Participated in at least 4 events sponsored by organizations representing groups present in the community interested in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops, and similar activities.

WWOZ participated in community events that were free and open for the public to attend and WWOZ staff discussed volunteer and employment opportunities with attendees and provided relevant applications to interested parties. A few of these events included:

- “Wednesday at the Square” concert in Lafayette Square Park on March 9, 2016, sponsored by the Young Leadership Council of New Orleans.
- Sync Up Conference in New Orleans on April 22-30, 2016, sponsored by New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation.
- Public Media Development & Marketing Conference, August 11-13, 2016, sponsored by Greater Public.
- “Make a Difference” Career Fair, April 15, 2016, sponsored by Tulane University.

Established an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Participated in job banks, internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., that are not primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies).

WVOZ continued its robust volunteer program in the reporting period, giving students and adults from the local community to gain hands-on experience at a community radio station. WVOZ currently has 650 volunteers on its roster.

WVOZ participated in the Louisiana Workforce Commission's HiRE (Helping Individuals Reach Employment) program, by posting the WVOZ company profile and posting all job openings during the reporting period on the LouisianaWorks.com website.

WVOZ participated in a total of 20 local outreach events that were free and open for the public to attend and at which WVOZ promoted outreach generally. A few of these events included:

- The Louisiana Cajun-Zydeco Festival, sponsored by the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation, on June 20, 2016.
- New Orleans Culture Collision, organized by the Arts Council of New Orleans, on August 31, 2016.
- Crescent City Blues and BBQ Festival, sponsored by the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation, on October 14-16, 2016.
- Treme Creole Gumbo Festival, sponsored by the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Foundation, on November 12-13, 2016.

In the reporting period, WVOZ continued its cooperation with KLSP 91.7 FM, the official radio station of the Louisiana State Penitentiary. KLSP is the only FCC-licensed radio station to operate from within a prison using inmate disc jockeys, and boasts a listenership of approximately 6,000 people, including prison staff, inmates and visitors. WVOZ provides KLSP with CD's and digital musical files and provides broadcasting training to the individuals who are involved with the station.

The WVOZ Community Advisory Board (CAB) was active in 2016, exploring better ways to serve the New Orleans community. The CAB is a volunteer group of interested listeners who meet every month to gather public comments and advise the station as to whether the activities and policies of the station meet the specialized cultural needs of the community.

Participated in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.

WWOZ did not participate in any scholarship programs in 2016.

Established a mentoring program for station personnel.

Volunteer Coordinator Maryse Déjean and Operations Assistant Manager Jorge Fuentes continued WWOZ's mentoring program for station personnel and members of the community interested in becoming on-air show hosts or program producers. Interested individuals are provided training opportunities regardless of age, experience, sex, ethnicity, or physical disability.
